Connect with THE PROJECT

stones, earth, water, the heavens, sites, stories and dreams.

The Santa Prima project consists of bringing old stones with character back to life. They have survived centuries, tell a story and witness to cultures that invite us to get back to nature in its raw, generous state. These sites inspire and exalt us. They have all the time in the world to put our projects and priorities into perspective, making them meaningful in any circumstance.

Authentic Estates Houses with history & soul

Santa Prima estates are never built to imitate — they are living heritage. Farmhouses, palaces, and chapels, each restored with respect for their origins, offer an experience that cannot be manufactured. To stay in one is to feel the truth of a place, where every stone and vaulted ceiling tells a story.

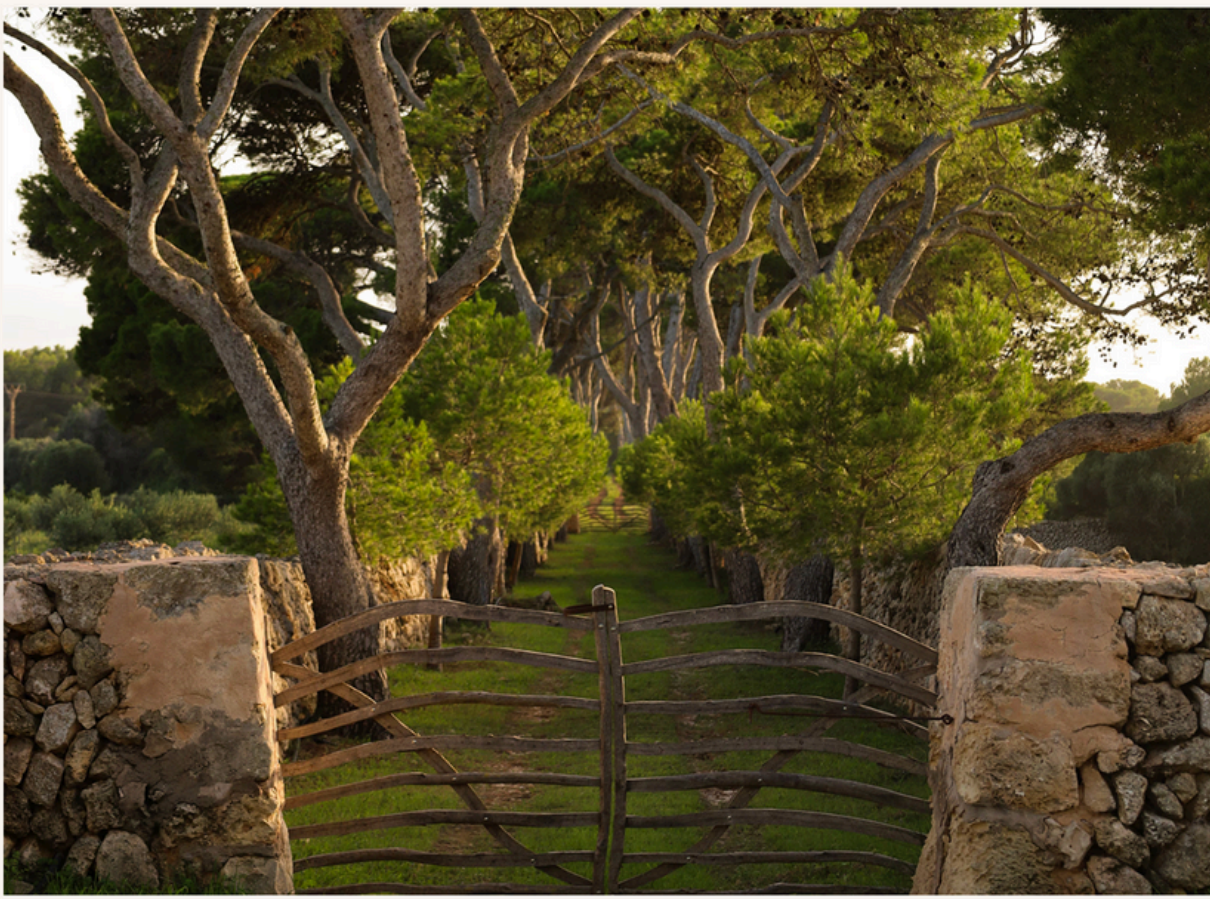

Origins of ‘Santa Prima Collection’

The name Santa Prima originates from a relic discovered in the Lisbon palace chapel, where the body of Saint Prima, one of the earliest Roman martyrs, was kept. Gifted by the Pope to the Marquis of Pombal, the relic symbolized renewed ties between Portugal and the Holy See. This spirit of heritage and continuity inspires Santa Prima today: preserving the past while creating new stories for the future.

Agricultural Roots Farm-to-table living

In Menorca, agriculture is at the center of life. Our fincas remain tied to the land, surrounded by orchards, fields, livestock, and gardens that nourish daily life. Fresh produce flows directly from the estate to the table, reconnecting guests with nature’s generosity and the authentic rhythm of countryside living.

Privacy & Exclusivity Your own world, away from the world

Each Santa Prima property spans across vast land, ensuring intimacy and seclusion. With only a small, curated collection of estates, guests experience rare privacy and exclusivity — the true luxury of feeling the world is yours alone.

Bespoke Hospitality The warmth of a home, the service of the greatest hotels

At Santa Prima, hospitality is both personal and refined. Families, friends, and teams are welcomed into spaces that feel like home, while enjoying comfort and service worthy of the finest hotels. From curated experiences to discreet attention, every detail is designed to make each stay unique and effortless.
